

An Open Letter of Invitation to all Buddhists of all Traditions

A training Program consisting of three sessions is scheduled in Jan-07 for Buddhists who wish to learn methods of teaching Buddhism to the young, also for those who wish to become a teacher or teacher aide of Buddhist studies for primary and high schools in Queensland.

Attendees will learn many aspects of methods of teaching and useful skills which are applicable and useful in teaching young children and students in general.

On completion of the three training sessions, a letter to confirm your attendance will be issued by the Education Team.

This is organized by the Buddhist Education Team which has been set up to foster interest in teaching Buddhism in schools and as a response to Federal Government legislation regarding Religious Instruction in schools during school hours.

You will also obtain information on registration to become teacher or teacher aide of Buddhist Studies, teaching resources and support.

Each training session will start at 9:30am and conclude by 4pm. A vegetarian lunch is provided.
